

Viktor Katz (1880–1940)

I v a S T E I N O V Á

 69, 2015, s. 174–177

Viktor Katz (1880–1940)

The article about Viktor Katz commemorates the 75th death anniversary of the important numismatist and collector who was born in Jistebnice, and there is his gravestone at the Jewish cemetery there. The text follows the Katz’s life story, notifies his numismatic work and documents details connected with his personality based on archive sources and museum objects. Some of his predecessors buried at the Jewish cemetery in Jistebnice are mentioned here, including his uncle Leopold who is known as the discoverer of the so-called Hymn book of Jistebnice. The article is completed by publication of the medal commemorating Viktor Katz made by the important Czech medal designer Josef Šejnost in 1930.

 Viktor Katz (1880–1940); numismatists; Jewish cemetery; medal; Jistebnice [CZ].

 Viktor Katz (1880–1940); numismatici; židovský hřbitov; medaile; Jistebnice.