Celtic coins in the collection of the Museum of the Capital of Prague

A group of seven Celtic coins preserved in the collection of the Museum of the Capital of Prague is presented. With exception for the Gaulish ball-shaped stater found in Ořech, the remaining specimens have no finding specifications registered. One Boian tetradrachm with image of lyre, two shell-shaped staters and three coins from Pannonia are listed here. Publication of the above-mentioned coins contributes to documentation of the Celtic coins in the Czech museum collections.
